More than You can Ask or Think

What do you need today? God will provide it.

Yes, it's that simple. This book is not just a collection of testimonies. It's not just an anthology of short (true) stories for bedtime reading or morning devotions. It's proof that God's promises are real and for you. It's a reference of God's power constantly at work in all realms of earthly existence today, even for just one person!

Why would God do so much for just one? Because I am His child. Are you His child? Then take this book as proof that He'll do the same for you — everyday. After all, what wouldn't you do for your child?

Believe me, there is nothing special about me. I've sinned just as much as you, possibly more. I mess up every day in one way or another. Yet God shows off in my life on a regular basis. If you're not constantly seeing His grace and His power in action, then the only difference between us is likely that I EXPECT Him to do whatever it takes to care for me every day. Regardless of what my need is, I trust Him to meet it. I do not trust myself to take care of myself — at least, I try not to. With this book I hope to inspire you to trust Him more and expect more from Him. Expectation is the highest form of faith, and He will honor it even if it requires overriding the laws of physics.

Yes, the miraculous is found in the natural — the architecture of a nautilus shell, conception, how daisy petals curl up before it rains, the flight of bumblebees. But that is not what this book is about. It's about receiving obvious and indisputable miracles of protection, health, provision and blessings of all kinds as you go about your otherwise ordinary life. God will turn that life — your life — into an action-adventure story. People will speak of you to others, "You won't believe what happened to this guy I met the other day...," and God will be glorified.

Protection, health and provision — would you bear with me while I expound on that a bit, before we get to the amazing accounts I want to share with you? These are the three main areas where the church needs hope in this crazy time. So many of us think of the promises as things we have to look forward to in heaven, but I hope the experiences I've chronicled here will prove that theory wrong for you. God keeps His promises, whatever it takes, when you believe. If that means doing something so grand that we call it a miracle, so be it.

TITLE

Protection is a promise of God:

For he will give his angels orders concerning you, to protect you in all your ways.

- Psalm 91:11 CSB

We won't need protection when we're in heaven. All the danger is here; all the sickness is here; all the persecution is here; all the demons are here. None of these things can harass us in heaven. Without God's protection, the enemy would take you out of the game, and the Lord would lose a laborer. Protection is for here and now.

Health is a promise of God:

My son, give attention to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.
Do not let them depart from your sight;
keep them in the midst of your heart.
For they are life to those who find them and health to all their body.

- Proverbs 4:20-23 NASB

Health allows you to carry out God's work at peak efficiency. Why would you need healing in heaven when you're going to
